Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security Number and Account Transactions
- Credit History and Credit Scores
- Payment History and Transaction or Loss History

How?
All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons LGE Community Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

| Who is providing this notice? | LGE Community Credit Union |

What we do

| How does LGE Community Credit Union protect my personal information? | To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. |
| How does LGE Community Credit Union collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- open an account or apply for a loan
- provide account information or show your driver’s license
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices will apply to everyone on your account. |

Definitions

| Affiliates | Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- Our affiliates include financial companies, such as LGE Insurance Services, LLC. |
| Nonaffiliates | Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- LGE Community Credit Union does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you. |
| Joint marketing | A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
- Our joint marketing partners include investment and insurance companies, and direct marketing companies. |
